

Brexit information for NZ exporters

Following the UK Parliament's rejection of the latest Brexit proposal, an immediate exit from the EU on 29 March 2019 is now a possibility.

Updated information on the progress of negotiations and the issues affecting New Zealand exporters to the UK and EU can be found:

Tariff rate quotas

New Zealand's main dairy and meat exports in the EU market are under tariff rate quotas.

Access to country tariff quotas in the EU (including the UK) is managed by the New Zealand Meat Board (for high-quality beef and sheep meat) and MPI (for butter, cheddar cheese, and cheese for processing).
